ROTTEN ROTTIES STRIKE AGAIN!

The Rotties came out full force. Once again melting minds with the wall of sound they produce. The songs played were a mix of old and new. From original demos to unreleased, each one giving it's own feel. This band is all about having a good time. Nothing more, Nothing less. The brainchild of MoBlue, originally intended to be a 2 piece band. I saw an ad Mo had made up saying "looking for members". I said "hey, if ya need a bassist or some shit just let me know." I'm forever grateful he decided to try a trio. It's been a wild ride, and this is just the begining.

TRD ALBUM RELEASE SHOW

On February 22nd 2025, we celebrated the birthday and album release of our good friend, Gavin Breen. The night started with DJ Quanta behind the tables. Keeping the vibes nice and chill as people started to flow in. After that, Ras Cherub hit the stage. With some original tunes and some rockin' covers, and a rippin' kazoo. He never fails to impress. Flawlessly strumming through complex chord combinations while smiling out towards the crowd.

Next up we got to see Emma Plant perform an acoustic set. Grabbing the crowds attention with her unique and powerful vocals. Hailing from the west coast, she has played many shows all over the place. From professional gigs, to big time festivals. It's seems she's just about to done it all. Leading the band 'Lazy Days', Emma is currently getting ready to release a few new singles. Be sure to check her music out on spotify.

TRO ALBUM RELEASE SHOW

Gavin Breen took the stage by storm. Having the crowd pumped up from the previous acts, i still don't think anyone was ready for the onslaught of lyrics we were about to hear. Bringingback the boom-bap style that has beenoh so missed by many. When the first beat hit, you could see people looking around giving nods of approval. But when he opened his mouth, all hell broke loose. People went from being curious and standing around, to jumping up and down with hands flying through the air. From front-to-back the new album was performed in it's entirety. From back-to-front that record hits fuckin hard. If you decide to check it out(it would be kinda fucked up if you didn't) be sure to run it back with a pair of headphones on. It's not easy to digest and breakdown all the shit he's saying unless you're willing to give it a full thorough listen. Playing it on repeat helps as well. Streaming where everyou listen to music.

UPCOMING SHOWS!

JOIN US ON THE ROAD TO ODDFEST!

April 10th, marks the first show on the road to Oddfest. Hosted by "Odd Whale Events", this is sure to be a blast. Lots of noise, lots of sound, lots of fun. Starting at The Union in Kitchener-Waterloo and ending god knows where. This is an all ages event, so be sure to sneak out if your parents won't let you attend.

A large, detailed poster for "ROAD TO ODDFEST VOL. 1". At the top, it lists the time "6:30PM" and date "APRIL 10 2025". The venue is "THE UNION" at "124 SYDNEY ST S, KITCHENER, ON". The event title "ROAD TO ODDFEST VOL. 1" is written in large, bold, stylized letters. Below the title, a list of bands is shown: MILHOWSE, THE ROTTWEILERS, DEW, SONG SCENE KIDS, RED CARPET REVIVAL, ODD WHALE EVENTS, and $10 OR PWYC AT THE DOOR. On the right side of the poster is a black and white portrait of a woman with a floral crown and star-shaped eye makeup. The poster is decorated with starburst graphics in the corners and floral motifs.

THIS WEEKEND - MARCH 14/15

CKMS GOLDEN MP3s - March 15th

This one is going to run late into the night. We're lucky to have our good friend Yenny for hooking us up with this gig. She first got the chance to see us rip a set downtown Waterloo Townsquare (shoutout skro). Since then she has featured our music on Radio Waterloo a couple of times helping to get our Songs and ugly mugs out there. Once again she is giving us another gnarly opportunity. It's going to be a good night full of all different kinds of music, so come on down for some rockin tunes and entertainment.

NO FUNERAL RECORDS PRESENTS:

No Funeral Records reached out to us about opening for June Body about a month ago. June body is a band from Halifax, Nova Scotia. Going from place-to-place sharing their music. We'll also be sharing the floor with Dog Named Baseball. Should be an interesting time. Be sure to check it out.

SUPPORT LOCAL

Square One Skate Shop

Looking for a fresh setup for the upcoming skate season? Need some new gear so you can look cooler than all your lame friends? Then you gotta hit up Square One Skate Shop. Square One is owned and operated by Scott Leblanc out of St. Marys Ontario. He's been a big help in the local skate scene. Be it hosting skate contests, giving out free lessons, or creating one hell of a skate team. He's done a huge part in putting the surrounding area on the map. They just dropped a new video, so grab your buds and give it a watch.

The RAD Studio

We emailed The RAD Studio with a last minute order and they were able to get us our merch within a couple of days. Located in Stratford next to Totally Spoked, they opened up about a year ago. When I went in they had everything wrapped up individually in plastic and stacked neatly in a cardboard box. The price was fair and the quality of their products are great. If ya ever need merch for your own band, be sure to shoot them an email.

DYLAN FISCHER

Family man by day, Tortured Artist by Night.

I've known Dylan going on about 3 years now. Of all the scumbags that lurk around this town, I'm sure glad to have met this one. First spotting the dude at the skatepark. With intense tattoos from head to toe, you don't even have to talk to him to know he's artisticas hell. Dylan's supported eveything I've done since we've met, and I try my best to do the same. So take a moment to feast your eyes upon his works and all its gnarliness.

BAND CHOICE # 1

Malicious Entity

From the dark and hollow depths of Ontario. Malicious Entity is a Blackened/Death/Thrash Metal music project based out of Waterloo Ontario. Inspired by the likes of early SLAYER (Hell Awaits, Show No Mercy) each release never fails to blow my mind. From the vicious vocals cutting through, to the blast beats and the double kick grooves, straight through to the lightning fast guitar work. This is a project that needs more attention. Everything recorded by a single man in his basement. So far there are 3 EP's and 1 Album. I was told the other day that there may be more music in the works. One of my favorite listens is "Lycanthrope" from the album "Witches Sabbath".

EDITOR GARBARAGE

There you have it scumbags. The first issue of The Dogshit Report. I never had any plans or intentions on doing this thing. From lack of sleep, no job, and sheer boredom, shit just kind of happened. My original intention was to use it as a promo piece for The Rotties, but it doesn't feel right to only promote the things I'm a part of. There's a lot of talent and interesting characters out there that just get swept under the rug with the roaches.

Been there, done that. Doesn't feel good.

I want to use The Dogshit Report to support and expose those who deserve it. Be it good or bad. You get what you get, don't show your ass or it might end up on the front page.

To anyone that wants anything (and I mean anything) in The Dogshit Report, feel free to reach out through email. My information is somewhere on here. You can also reach out over Instagram and Facebook. This paper/zine has no boundaries, and no real focus. Cheers, hope everyone enjoys. Rock on, Fuck off.
